Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Harvey Wieland grew up in Glasford, Illinois, and received his education at Illinois State College; and,

Whereas, Harvey began teaching at Little Wound School in 1963, when it was originally built, and he has taught various grades throughout his teaching career; and,

Whereas, Harvey has been a Boy Scout Leader, 4-H Leader, danced in many Pow-Wow's; and,

Whereas, On May 10, 2004, a celebration will be held in honor of Harvey's June 4, 2004, retirement honoring him for his 41 years of service to the children and community; and,

Whereas, After his retirement, Harvey plans to garden, travel, return to Illinois to the farm where he grew up, and sleep in; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 4, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, colleagues and friends in wishing him a fulfilling, healthy, and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds
